

New Fellowships for 2012 – 2013

Asia Pacific Leadership Program

The East-West Center is pleased to invite applications for the Asia Pacific Leadership Program Fellowship (APLP) for the 2012 – 2013 year. The APLP is the center of excellence for leadership education in the Asia Pacific region and a signature program of the East West Center.

Currently celebrating its 11th anniversary, the APLP has created a network of 400 dynamic leaders in 53 countries who are helping to build a peaceful, prosperous and just Asia Pacific community. Upon acceptance, all participants receive a fellowship valued at approximately $15,000 USD to cover the majority of the program costs.

Program Description

The APLP seeks outstanding individuals from all walks of life (government, business, NGOs, health sciences, media, monastic orders, and education) to participate in an innovative leadership development program at the East-West Center in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

From August – December 2012, 40 Fellows from around the globe will join regional specialists and leadership educators in a dynamic learning community. Through APLP, Fellows will:

- Explore leadership techniques and tools
- Analyze personal leadership strengths and weaknesses
- Grasp and be able to communicate implications of regional and global trends
- Survey a wide range of content including climate change, demographics, international relations and global markets
- Connect with a diverse range of global specialists and research
- Forge deeper intercultural communication skills and join a lifelong learning community at the East-West Center
- Develop enhanced abilities to navigate regional and personal change

From January – April 2013, Fellows have the option to participate in extended fieldwork in Southeast Asia, internships, self-designed projects and employment experience.

A wide range of supplemental scholarships are available.
